STORM IN ILLINOIS.

Logan, DeWitt and Platt Counties Were Swept by a Destructive Tornado Sunday.

SCORE OR MORE KILLED AND HURT

Body of an Infant Found 300 Feet From the Place Where a Demolished House Stood.

A Family and Several Visitors Sought Safety in a Cellar and the House Was Torn From Over Their Heads.

Springfield, Ill., April 13.—One death, a fatal injury and a score or more of injuries resulted from a tornado that swept over Logan, DeWitt and Platt counties Sunday afternoon. The fatality occurred in the Halsadarzer settlement, a little farming community three miles from Atwood, Platt county. The home of Clifford Halsadarzer was demolished and after the storm Halsadarzer's infant son was found dead 300 feet from the place where the house stood. The baby was lying in bed when the wind struck the house. Mrs. Halsadarzer was hurled across the village street and fatally injured. Mrs. J. B. Martin's home was destroyed, and several guests were painfully injured.

Deer Creek, in Logan county, was swept dry of water. Reports from this district state that three houses were destroyed and a number of people more or less injured. Supervisor Adam Schanauer's handsome residence was destroyed. The family of several children and a number of visitors, 15 in all, sought safety in the cellar, and the house was torn from over them. The homes of Samuel V. Baldwin and Gus Knecht were destroyed.

Mrs. Baldwin and two farm hands took refuge in a smoke house in which they were hurled several hundred feet and painfully injured.

It is reported that the town of Waynesville and the blue grass districts east of Atlanta were struck and much damage resulted, but communication with these points is cut off.

Lincoln, Ill., April 13.—Three farm residences were destroyed, several persons were injured and grain and machinery were blown away Sunday by a tornado which swept over the country east of Lincoln. The storm followed Deer Creek and passed from the southwest to the northeast. The homes of Samuel V. Baldwin, Adam Schanauer and Gustave Knecht were wrecked and the families and visitors escaped by rushing to the cellars on hearing the roar of the approaching storm. The wind is reported to have struck the town of Waynesville.

TERRIFIC THUNDERSTORM.

One Man Killed and Thousands of Dollars' Worth of Property Destroyed.

Pittsburg, Pa., April 13.—With terrifying swiftness the thunder storm which came out of the west Sunday evening crashed over Pittsburg, pouring miniature rivers through streets, flooding cellars and inflicting damage that will reach thousands of dollars. Many buildings were struck. Irving T. Wilson, of Dubois, Pa., while walking from one building to another at the Dixmont insane asylum, where he is employed, was struck down by a bolt of lightning. He was dead when picked up.

The congregation of Christ M. E. church, in Center avenue, was storm-bound. The street for blocks was flooded. Street car traffic was almost entirely suspended in the eastern portions of the city. In Wilkinsburg the cloud-burst poured through the valley. People were driven into the second stories of their homes. The loss to property in the 37th ward was great. A house in Coal street was almost swept away from a Pitt street yard on Pennsylvania railroad. A signal tower of the Pennsylvania railroad was struck by lightning and the adjoining passenger station was fired.

The only warning of the approaching storm visible to the thousands that filled the streets of the city was the sudden rush of clouds darkening the sky that a moment before was radiant with the Easter sun. In an instant torrents fell.

RAIN FELL IN TORRENTS.

In a Short Time Montour Valley Was a Foaming Mass of Water.

Pittsburg, Pa., April 13.—A telegram from Imperial says: Rain began falling in torrents Sunday evening and continued one hour, accompanied by a severe electrical storm. In a short time the Montour valley, which point is narrow, was a foaming mass of water, and timber from nearby lumber yards filled and obstructed it. The tracks of the Montour railroad, which runs parallel with the valley, were carried away in many places. The coal traffic from the Imperial district of the Pittsburg Coal Co. will be at a standstill for several days, until the railroad can be built over. It is not known that any lives were lost. Farmers in the valley will suffer great loss as many fields were almost ready for planting.

STRICKEN WITH APOPLEXY.

Rt. Rev. Mgr. Michael Bouchet, of Louisville Diocese, Dead.

Louisville, Ky., April 13.—Rt. Rev. Mgr. Michael Bouchet, vicar general of the Roman Catholic diocese of Louisville, died Sunday morning at 4:25 o'clock at the rector of the Cathedral of the Assumption. He was stricken with apoplexy while on his knees in prayer at 11:25 o'clock Saturday night and passed away after only four hours' illness. Although he was 76 years old he had been a man of good health, was hale in body and mind and so far as is known the fatal attack came on without any premonition. He was a native of France and came to this country in 1853. Seven years later he was called to Louisville, where he has remained ever since, having been appointed vicar general of the diocese in 1871.

DUE TO ACCIDENT.

Watch and Money Was Found on Drowned Man's Body.

Frankfort, Ky., April 13.—The body of a man was found in the Kentucky river at Polsgrove Landing Saturday night, and at 3 o'clock Sunday morning Coroner Graham's jury returned a verdict that it was M. L. Goldsmith, the L. & N. bridgekeeper, who was accidentally drowned last December. It was believed that Goldsmith had been killed, robbed and thrown in the river, but his purse, with $132 in money, and his watch were found on his person by the coroner. It is thought he fell into the river while removing one of the bridge lanterns at daylight.

BITTEN BY RACE HORSE.

State Veterinarian Eisenman May Lose His Right Thumb.

Louisville, Ky., April 13.—Dr. Frank T. Eisenman, Kentucky's state veterinarian, may lose his right thumb as the result of being bitten by a race horse at Churchill Downs Sunday afternoon. Dr. Eisenman had been called to attend Telamon, one of Abe Furst's horses, recently brought here from New Orleans. The horse snapped at him and caught the doctor's thumb, lacerating the flesh and crushing the bones.

THEY SKIPPED OUT.

Maxmillan Lord and His Party Leave Louisville.

Lexington, Ky., April 13.—"Skipped by the light of the moon" was the sign placed upon the door of a suite of rooms in this city, which have been occupied for the past two weeks by Maxmillan Lord, Mme Leselle and Mme Rex Lemar. They have been working palmistry, magnetic healing and as clairvoyants. A number of bill collectors searched for them Sunday. It is asserted that they have gone to Cincinnati.

Death of E. J. Hickey.

Covington, Ky., April 13.—After an illness of several weeks, Mr. E. J. Hickey died Saturday night at his home in this city. Mr. Hickey was one of Covington's oldest and most prominent citizens. He was a member of the Kentucky legislature and the first republican ever elected from his district to the general assembly of Kentucky. He was the oldest shoe dealer in the city and one of its wealthiest men.

Newport commandery, Knights Templar, was escorted by Robert Burns lodge; Newport lodge No. 358; Henry Barnes lodge, No. 607, of Dayton, and Olive Branch, Chapter Royal Arch, No. 76. The services were impressive.

MERGER DECISION.

American Anti-Trust League, in a Letter, Congratulates Department of Justice.

VITAL AND IMPORTANT DECISION.

Attorney General Urged to Prosecute the Officers and Individuals Who Form Northern Securities Co.

He Is Also Urged to Institute "Proceedings, Both Civil and Criminal, Against the So-Called Anthracite Coal Trust."

Washington, April 13.—An executive committee of the American Anti-Trust League, through its secretary, H. B. Martin, has sent Attorney General Knox a letter in which they congratulate the department of justice, of which the letter says the league heretofore has complained because of what the league considered its dilatoriness in enforcing the Sherman anti-trust act on "the conspicuous success its efforts have achieved in securing a vital and far-reaching judicial interpretation of the act of 1890." The letter then declares it is essential that the injunction obtained be followed up if its benefits are to be realized by penal prosecutions of the officers and individuals who form the Northern Securities Co. The attorney general is also urged to institute "proceedings, both civil and criminal, against the anthracite coal trust."

Richmond, Va., April 13.—The decision of the United States circuit court of appeals in the Northern Securities merger case, John Skelton Williams, president of the Seaboard Air Line railway system, says he regards as one of the greatest blessings and the brightest promises for railroad interests and general business that the country could have. In an interview Sunday with a press representative, when asked his opinion of the decision, Williams said: "I am satisfied that when they come to study the matter carefully railroad men and thinking men of all classes, not only in the south, but in the country generally, except those whose ambitious schemes are directly hindered, will be united in the feeling that the decision is sound law, good sense and for the advantage of all legitimate interests and for the country's welfare. From a legal standpoint it accords with the opinions of many of the ablest lawyers of the country and it seems to be fortified with authorities and reasoning too strong to be shaken. I have no fear that the supreme court will reverse or seriously modify it."

"The independent railroads and systems are by this decision assured that connecting lines with whom they interchange business can not be bought by some powerful competitor of their own and of such friendly connecting lines and the holders of securities in the independent systems will be assured that their interests can not be jeopardized by the sale of a majority share to rivals whose interests may be to divert the business of the road to other channels at the expense of minority holders."

VIOLATED ANTI-TRUST LAW.

The Five Missouri Packing Companies Paid Their Fines.

Kansas City, Mo., April 13.—The five Missouri packing companies which were fined $5,000 each on March 20 for violation of the anti-trust law, through their attorney, Frank Hagerman, of this city, have mailed to the state supreme court a draft for $27,136, in payment of fines and costs incident to the action against them. The firms are the Armour Packing Co., Cudahy Packing Co., Hammond Packing Co., Swift & Co., and Schwartzschild & Sulzberger. The payment was made before it was due.

Burned a Negro's Body.

Shreveport, La., April 13.—The body of Ed Porter, the Negro who killed Mrs. Matthews, and in turn was killed by officers, was taken to the head of Texas street by a mob of about 100 men, placed on a funeral pyre and cremated.

Fire at Dysart, Ia.

Dysart, Ia., April 13.—Fire started Sunday morning with an explosion in the Fair store, owned by J. A. Dayton. The Dayton store, Mayser & Lumens drug store, Weise & Schroeder's market and the post office were burned.

BACK TAXES.

Appellate Court Limits Recovery to Five Years—Opinion in a Fleming County Case.

In the suit of the Commonwealth &c. against Mrs. Mahala Nute, taken up from Fleming County, the Court of Appeals says:

This was a proceeding in the County Court by an Auditor's agent to have assessed for taxation an annuity for ten years prior thereto belonging to appellee.

The County Court and Circuit Court dismissed said proceedings from which this appeal is prosecuted. It is insisted that Section 2515, Kentucky Statutes, providing a limitation of five years as a bar to an action upon a liability created by statute, prevents an assessment of personal property for more than five years after the cause of action accrues.

Held.—That this proceeding is an action within the meaning of Section 460, Kentucky Statutes, and that the provision of the statute of limitations applies to this action, as provided by Section 2522, Kentucky Statutes, and that property cannot be retrospectively assessed for taxation for more than five years from the institution of a proceeding like this.

While there are several decisions of this court holding, or seeming to hold, the contrary opinion, most of them were rendered when the statutes were different from those that now exist and some of them were dicta. All such opinions are in conflict with this opinion and are no longer authority on the question herein decided.

THE MARKETS.

Review of the Week's Trade in Live Stock and Tobacco at Cincinnati.

Tobacco—The week showed a sharp decline in offerings and receipts. Rejections also were heavy, but the percentage a little less than last week, being a fraction over 28 per cent.

The new tobacco, the common and non-descript sorts, red and mixed, under 5/4c., formed the greater portion of the breaks. Medium leaf, red and color, between 6/4c. and 8/4c., was very sparingly offered, shippers evidently being not very desirous of parting with their holdings at the present prevailing prices.

Fine and fancy leaf was also a very scarce commodity, less than twenty bbls. selling at prices ranging between 10c. and 16c.

Good color—That is anything of decided merit—was scarce in all types, and the condition of a very large proportion of all offerings rather unsatisfactory to bidders.

These general conditions had the effect of making an exporters' and rehandlers' market for the new crop, manufacturers being extremely cautious in their purchases.

Old tobacco continued to be the strongest and best feature of the sales, especially the common smokers under 4/4c. and common plug fillers between 6c. and 7/4c. Medium and fine leaf of the old crop was somewhat dull and irregular, but on the whole realizations were acceptable to shippers.

Cattle—Market steady most of the week, with prices averaging 10@15c. higher than a week ago, but about 10@15c. below prices prevailing two weeks ago. Good light, fat stock was in best demand. Offerings have not been large, but about ample for the steady demand. The quality of receipts is fair. Good stockers and feeders sell readily and are firm. Milk cows are unchanged. Bulls are quiet but about steady.

Hogs—Prices made but little change during the week, and are about the same as a week ago, but there was a little more discrimination in the demand, so that while best packers and shippers were active and strong, ordinary stock was rather slow sale. The market closed a little easier.

Sheep—Market for sheep and lambs was steady most of the week, but the lower grades were slow sale, and in some cases prices were slightly shaded, so that while top grades sell now as well as a week ago lower grades for both sheep and lambs are a little lower. Offerings have been only moderate.

Resolutions of Respect.

Joseph Heiser Post No. 13, G. A. R., Department of Kentucky, sitting as a camp of sorrow because death has invaded its ranks and called to its reveille the soul of Comrade John Helmer, long an honored and beloved companion whose virtues we write upon the tablet of the heart while his frailties are inscribed upon the sands, quickly effaced by the water of forgetfulness. In the death of Comrade Helmer we feel the pressure of a sorrow not easily assuaged, for his were qualities strangely mixed to make a man whose personality drew to him a company of friends strongly attached by reason of his straightforward, honest, rugged nature.

Resolved, Therefore by Joseph Heiser Post No. 13, That in the departure from amongst us of our friend and companion we bow to the will of our Sovereign Commander and invoke His presence to strengthen our faith that when we shall have heard the trumpet call for the great assembly we may enlist in that army among whom shall be our departed brother.

Resolved, That these resolutions be given a page in our memorial records, a copy sent to the family of brother Helmer and same published in our daily papers. By the committee,

JOHN V. DEA,
GEORGE N. CRAWFORD,
JOHN M. SHEPARD.

BURNED TO DEATH.

Nathan Morris, One of the Best Known Lawyers of Indiana, Lost His Life.

HIS LITTLE NEPHEW IS ALSO DEAD

The Mother, Two Daughters, a Son and the Governess Were More or Less Seriously Injured.

The Residence of Dr. Joseph Haas, Indianapolis, Took Fire While the inmates Were Asleep and Was Nearly Destroyed.

Indianapolis, Ind., April 13.—Nathan Morris, one of the best-known attorneys of Indiana, and Frank Haas, the 12-year-old son of Dr. Joseph Haas, were burned to death Sunday morning, and Mrs. Joseph Haas, Miss Rose Haas, Louis Haas and Grace Lemon, a governess, were injured more or less seriously. The residence of Dr. Joseph Haas, at 523 North Alabama street, was nearly burned to the ground. The fire started at 3 o'clock from the furnace.

The family was asleep on the second floor. Mr. Morris was a brother of Mrs. Haas. From the position of his charred body when found it was evident he was endeavoring to get the family out of the rooms when overcome by smoke and flames. The firemen succeeded in saving the other members of the family after heroic work, so rapidly did the flames spread. The body of Frank Haas and the unconscious governess were found on the back stairs. Louis Haas broke his leg jumping from a second-story window.

Mr. Morris was the senior member of the well-known commercial law firm of Morris & Newberger. He was born in California in 1857 and has practiced here since 1877. The injured members of the Haas family are still in a serious condition, though it is believed all will recover. Mrs. Haas and one of her daughters are suffering, and it was feared at first that they had inhaled flames. Dr. Haas, one of the best-known physicians in the city, was at Lima, Ind., visiting his son at military school.

THE Civic League of Augusta, whose aim is to beautify and improve the city, is preparing to have the principal streets sprinkled this summer. A league of that kind could find plenty to keep it busy here in Maysville.

The Union League Club of New York, by a decisive vote repudiated a resolution presented by its special committee urging Congress to cut down the representation in the House of Representatives from all States which had limited the franchise so far as colored men are concerned. The President of the United States is a member of the club, and was once its Vice President. The resolution was offered by a committee which has had the subject under consideration for several months. "It was engendered by the opposition to the nomination of negroes to Federal offices," says a dispatch, "and its passage was tantamount to a vote of confidence in the Chief Executive of the nation at the hands of one of the most influential (Republican) organizations in the country."

ALLIE W. YOUNG, Chairman of the Democratic State Central and State Executive Committees, was here yesterday in consultation with a number of politicians. He took occasion to deny statements published in the Republican press to the effect that he and Governor Beckham were at odds, and that he was bending all his energies to secure the election of S. W. Hager, candidate for Auditor of Public Accounts. "Not one of these reports is true," said he, "and very few people believe them. I think Beckham will win the nomination by a handsome majority."

The above is taken from the Covington news in the Saturday's Enquirer. Such expressions as the last come in bad taste from the Chairman of the State Committee. Mr. Young seems to forget that he should maintain as disinterested a position as possible in this party fight. If he wants to favor Governor Beckham let him resign his position as Chairman of the State Executive and Central Committees.

TRANSPLANTED "Colonels" in every part of the United States are sending their dollars to the Kentucky Exhibit Association for Kentucky building souvenir buttons, out of the sale of which part of the building fund will be raised. Orders have been received from Mexico and Texas, Oklahoma and many other Western States. The Kentucky Society of St. Louis, of which President David R. Francis, of the exposition, a former Kentuckian, is a member, will probably dispose of 1,000 of the buttons in the Mound City. Two hundred and fifty of the attractive little souvenirs went to Washington City this week to be sold to former Kentuckians in the different departments there. The demand for the buttons has grown so heavy in Louisville that the association has found it necessary to open button headquarters on Fourth avenue in the new Urban Building. Reports from over the State indicate big sales.

D. HUNT & SON

The famous trotting mare Beuzetta (2:00) died at Patchen Wilken Farm, Lexington, the past week. In 1894, '95 and '96 Beuzetta was one of the most famous trotters on the turf and attracted probably more attention than any other trotter out during those years. She made four starts in 1894, and won at Maysville, getting a record of 2:15, but she first attained prominence that year by winning the great Kentucky Futurity for three-year-olds, probably the most valuable trotting stake ever won by a three-year-old trotter. The value of the stake was $27,480, and Beuzetta won in straight heats.

Mrs. Mamie Osborne, wife of Mr. William Osborne, died early Sunday morning at the family residence on West Second street, after an illness of two months, of consumption, complicated with cancer. She underwent an operation last February for the latter disease and had been gradually declining since then. Mrs. Osborne was forty-seven years of age, and is survived by her husband and one daughter. She was a sister of the late Thomas Crawford, of Moransburg, and leaves a large circle of friends who will learn with regret of her death.

One brother survives her, Mr. Henry Crawford, of Dover. The funeral will take place Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock at St. Patrick's Church, the interment following at Washington.

Congratulating Mr. Smoot.

[Dover News]

Superintendent Smoot is to be congratulated upon the good work he is now doing on our pikes. He has been working on the Ripley pike for several days and has greatly improved it. The pikes leading into Dover have gotten into such a terrible condition that it will now take much work to get them in proper shape. We are glad the Superintendent has turned his attention this way, and we hope our farmers will lend him any aid necessary to put our roads in first-class condition. With good roads the farms will increase in value.

It picks the potato up and looks it over—or seems to, cuts it into halves, quarters or any desired number of parts, separates the eyes and removes the seed ends. Having dropped the seed it covers it, fertilizes it, tucks it in like a child put to bed and paces off the next row with mathematical accuracy.

Cent a Word Wireless Messages.
[Chicago Telegram to the New York Sun.]

Commercial wireless telegraphy at a rate of one cent a word from Chicago to all the principal cities in the United States will be a fact within ninety days if the present plans of the American De Forest Wireless Telegraph Company are carried out. A statement to this effect was given out to-day at the Chicago office of the company by Abraham White, President of the corporation, and Dr. Lee De Forest, the inventor.

"We have purchased a tract of ground from the Northwestern University in North Evanston," said Mr. White. "There we will erect a station 210 feet high. Our engineers are expected to arrive to-morrow and work will be begun at once. It will take about forty days to erect the station. We expect to have it in operation and to be sending messages to Detroit, Cleveland, Buffalo and places on the Atlantic coast inside of sixty days."

Man's Inventive Genius.

The potato planter of to-day would make a farmer of a generation ago sit up and rub his eyes. It requires that the potatoes be supplied, but will do all the rest on its own initiative. It picks the potato up and looks it over—or seems to, cuts it into halves, quarters or any desired number of parts, separates the eyes and removes the seed ends. It plants whole potatoes or parts thereof, as desired, as near together or as far apart as the judgment of the farmer on the driving part suggests. Having dropped the seed it covers it, fertilizes it, tucks it in like a child put to bed and paces off the next row with mathematical accuracy.

The proposed trip of Gov. Beckham, his staff and several hundred members of the State Guard to the dedicatory ceremonies of the World's Fair at St. Louis, April 30th, has been abandoned. The lack of funds to pay the expenses of the soldiers and the rivalry between the various companies for the honor of making the trip are the causes assigned for the Governor's action.

Zach Gordley, of Augusta, was convicted in the U. S. court at Covington Saturday of counterfeiting. Twelve criminal cases have been tried at the present term, with twelve convictions. The knowing ones about the building say the reason there has been no acquittals was because there were thirteen cases on the docket. Judge Cochran will probably sentence the prisoners Wednesday.

Mrs. Elizabeth Weare, of Hudson, Colorado, and Mrs. Jennie T. Nelson her sister, of Dover, have sold their 1,200 acre ranch in Weld County, Colorado, for $3,500 cash. Mr. George P. Beasley died Saturday evening about 6 o'clock at his home on Second street, Fifth ward, of smallpox. He had been under the care of a physician for nearly a week, but it was not until Saturday morning that he was found to be suffering from smallpox. He had refused to be vaccinated (although urged by his family and physician to submit to the operation) and hence fell an easy victim to the disease. His remains were buried during the night, a couple of immunes attending to the interment. Mr. Beasley was about fifty-five years of age and is survived by his wife, two daughters and two sons. He was a member of Wyandotte Tribe No. 3, I. O. R. M., and the lodge will hold memorial services next Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the hall.

NOW FOR A GENERAL OVERHAULING, Cleaning and Painting Period!

It's the painting part we're most interested in.

Perhaps it's the house you're going to paint, the barn or some article of furniture.

It may be the family carriage, buggy, wagon or farm implement.

It really makes no difference what it is, if it's anything paintable we bid for your trade with THE VERY BEST article that's made—the U. S. READY-MIXED.

We know that other dealers make the same claim for really inferior grades, and some manufacturers extravagantly shout the merits of their product when there is really no comparison between these mixtures and the high-grade Paints made by the United States Paint Company, whose agents we are in this locality and whose goods we are permitted to guarantee.

One important point that should not be overlooked is the fact that you pay no more for quality when you buy the U. S. Paint than you are asked for the cheaply-made stuff.

Local testimonials furnished on request, and color cards, showing a large variety of beautiful shades, yours for the asking.

Hillsboro papers boast that that village is to have a sky-scraper. This causes a smile. What is the use of a sky-scraper in a town where building lots sell by the acre? What Hillsboro needs is a street-scraper.—Clermont Courier.

It would take a great deal more than sky-scrapers and street-scrapers to purify the 8 by 10 village where the Courier is published and where most of the judges, attorneys and other prominent citizens have been spending a portion of their time in jail.—Hillsboro Gazette.
